

The law should protect diversity of ownership. Small independent newspapers provide a diversity of opinion that is necessary for free speech protection. Multiple points of view, necessary for a healthy democracy will be lost if media ownership is consolidated. Dissenting opinions need a voice, and will only be guaranteed to be heard if they exist in all media. Continue the ban on cross ownership.